1. Introduction

Each manuscript must be written according to the “Information for Authors”, available from the website of the ITE Transactions on Media Technology and Applications (ITE Trans. MTA).

2. Style of Figures, Tables and Videos

All figures, tables and videos must be shown with their captions. References must correctly appear in the format of ITE Trans. MTA. The details are shown in the “Information for Authors”, and some examples are shown in this sample file. References should be cited by putting the sequential reference number in parentheses (right parenthesis only) in small text to the right of the citation location. References should be written in order of their appearance.

3. Conclusion

Before submitting manuscripts, authors should read the “Information for Authors” of ITE Trans. MTA, since all information required for the submission is shown in that document. Furthermore, many examples for writing manuscripts are available from “Table of Contents” of the website of ITE Trans. MTA.
